Attractions, Wineries, Fine Food and Accommodation

Attractions

Art gallery openings, concerts, studio artists, specialist antiques shops, gift shops, bookshops and world renowned crafted furniture, sculpture and design giftware – these vibrant and diverse village attractions make this country village a much talked about place to visit

Galleries and Craft

2016 marks 33 years for Bungendore Wood Works Gallery (3), now a cultural landmark for the region. The National Tourism Award winning Gallery draws visitors from all states and overseas for its outstanding exhibition of wood work gifts, sculpture, fine furniture and visual arts by leading Australian designer/makers and artists.

Bungendore Fine Art (6) opened in 2005. This Gallery is owned and operated by eight artists from the surrounding region, they are providing quality art for all tastes and budgets. The Gallery displays around 150 paintings ranging from large works to miniatures. Open seven days a week, with monthly exhibitions featuring guest artists, some new faces, some well-known.

Paul Kowalski Photography Gallery (8) showcases Paul's stunning and award winning fine art landscape photography from around Australia. Offering a diverse collection of framed photographic prints and gifts, the gallery is the perfect setting to view Paul's immaculate photographic work that is all captured on film. Also on offer are photographic workshops and tours. Open Thursday to Monday, be immersed in the Australian landscape.

The Gumnut Gallery and Art to Wear on Malbon (10) is a treasure trove of Lampwork glass beads, fairies, teddy bears, hats, fashion accessories, jewellery and children's wear. Beaded, embroidered, hand dyed silk and felted garments including reconstructed fashion designs by local studio artists Robyne and Renée d'Argeavel. Works by regional artisans, a full range of quality cane baskets and selected home-wares. Open Friday to Monday 10-4, Tuesday to Thursday by appointment.

At Bungendore Village Leather (5) you will find the country's finest collection of leather-craft by Australian and overseas craftsmen. Feel, smell and appreciate a natural product second to none.

X Gallery (18) situated in a beautifully restored barber's shop, has an emphasis on high quality art and objects by regional artists. Featuring contemporary jewellery by resident silversmith Xanthe Gay and glass, ceramics and fine art as well as world-renowned products by Fink & Co Design.

Suki & Hugh Gallery (18) is a purpose built gallery exhibiting the work of an exciting contemporary artist every six weeks. The gallery shop offers high quality and unique hand made objects.

A quintessential art and craft shop, Bungendore Art Connection (20) is run by resident artists, Tania and Vivien Laycock, always happy to chat about painting, kiln work, spinning, knitting and woodcraft. Bungendore souvenirs available, and for the art enthusiast, an excellent Papua New Guinea art collection is on permanent display.
